

Conspicuity Tape Warranty – TFT / PGT Series

Jammy Prismatic conspicuity tape (TFT and PGT Series) shall maintain reflectivity effective for its intended use, as DOT required conspicuity marking on trucks, trailers and other road going vehicles, for a period of 10 Years from the date of installation, when properly stored, installed and maintained per industry standard recommendations. Such reflectivity shall be in accordance with DOT/FMVSS/CMVSS minimum standards.

The following shall void any warranty: Improper storage, pretreatment or installation outside of recommended practices; improper use of power washing equipment; improper use of chemicals or cleaners; physical damage; or any other cause not originating from a defect in material or workmanship of the product. Jammy reserves the right to request additional information about any failure as necessary to determine the cause.

Any defect resulting in a valid claim under this warranty shall be remediated only by the replacement of the product in like type and quantity. Jammy shall not be responsible for any other losses incurred or related to the replacement of any product claimed under this warranty.
